Cover letter and submission template

This is the submission template for the Canadian Journal of Undergraduate Research (CJUR). This page consists of a cover letter and basic information, and the rest of the template is for the submitted article. Filling out the submission template is mandatory for all new manuscript submissions to CJUR. Failure to fill out the CJUR submission template will result in the manuscript being returned to the author(s) without review. All instructions are italicized and can be deleted prior to submission.

Title:

First author:

Please check the box if this manuscript has been submitted as coursework or is derived from a coursework submission (double click box to check if applicable):

If this manuscript was submitted as part of coursework, please state which university, which course, and the professor's contact information (double click box to fill if applicable):

Please review UBC's intellectual property guidelines: <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/intellectual-property-guide>. Please check the box if your manuscript includes any figures or images that are NOT original (double click box to check if applicable):

ABSTRACT

INTRODUCTION

Copy and paste your introduction here. Subsections are not permitted in the Introduction.

METHODS

Copy and paste your methods into this section.

Methods subsection 1

For subsections in Methods, use a bolded heading in sentence case (as above). Delete 'Methods subsection 1' if there are no subsections in Methods.

RESULTS

Copy and paste your results into this section.

Results subsection 1

For subsections in Results, use a bolded heading in sentence case (as above). Delete 'Results subsection 1' if there are no subsections in Results.

DISCUSSION

Copy and paste your discussion into this section. You may include any conclusions at the end of the Discussion, or include a formal Conclusions section (below). Subsections are only permitted in the Discussion if it is a review or Humanities article without Methods and/or Results.

CONCLUSIONS

You may include a Conclusions section, and copy and paste your conclusions here. However, you are not required to have this section, and may include any conclusions at the end of the Discussion section.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Copy and paste your acknowledgements (e.g. funding, assistance in the study that does not warrant authorship).

CONFLICT OF INTERESTS

State any conflicts of interest for authors on this manuscript. If there are no conflicts of interest, state, 'The authors declare no conflicts of interest'.

FIGURE AND TABLE LEGENDS

Figures and tables may be embedded in the text for the review phase, with a short descriptive title and/or legend, or uploaded separately to OJS. IMPORTANT: All figures should be uploaded separately on OJS under 'other' in addition to embedding figures in the text to allow for the highest quality rendering of the final product. Figures can be '.jpeg', '.png', '.tiff', and should be titled in accordance with the figure number (i.e. 'Figure1.tiff'). If reviewers or editors recommend changes to the figures, please reupload these on OJS under 'other' once the changes are made. If figures are only uploaded on OJS and not embedded in the manuscript, please copy and paste your figure titles/legends here.

REFERENCES

Copy and paste your references into this section. CJUR uses the APA citation style regardless of the discipline of the manuscript. Please ensure that the in-text and reference list citations are correct and follow APA formatting.
